Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

DIRECTORS & OFFICERS SIGN CONFLICT OF INTEREST DOCUMENT ANNUALLY

HealthEd Connect

Policy A-2

Conflicts of Interest

Purpose of Policy: To inform HealthEd Connect constituents of situations or relationships in which the business or personal interests of a board member, officer, staff member, on-site representative, associate, or advisory committee member has or will unduly or inappropriately influence the Organization's decision-making process.

HealthEd Connect wants to avoid situations in which the business or personal interests of a board member, officer, staff member, associate, or advisory committee member may unduly or inappropriately influence the organization's decision-making process. The Organization depends on a governing board whose members give freely of their time in furtherance of the Organization's charitable purposes and functions; and the Organization acknowledges that because of the varied interests and community involvement of its board members, officers, staff members, associates, and advisory committee members, this service may at times result in situations involving real or apparent conflicts of interest. So that potential conflicts will not prevent the Organization's board members, officers, staff members, associates, or advisory committee members from serving the organization

Name of the organization

Employer identification number

HEALTHED CONNECT INC

while at the same time playing active roles in their communities, the Organization has adopted a policy of dealing with such conflicts through full disclosure of any such actual or potential conflicting interests and abstention or recusal where a conflict is involved.

It is HealthEd Connect's policy to deal with conflicts in as open and as flexible a way as possible. In no event should the Organization's conflict of interest policy prevent a board member, officer, staff member, associate, or advisory committee member from briefly stating his or her position in the matter or from answering pertinent questions of other board members, officers, staff members, associates, or advisory committee members since his or her knowledge may be of great interest and assistance.

This policy is not a codification of rules of conduct; rather it is an expression of intention and purpose that should be interpreted and applied to achieve its stated objective. Individuals worthy of affiliation with the Organization will govern themselves by that spirit.

Definitions

This conflict of interest policy is intended to supplement-but not replace-federal and state laws governing conflicts of interest and self-dealing applicable to charitable organizations and private foundations like HealthEd Connect. It applies to board members, officers, staff members, associates, and advisory committee members with significant decision-making authority. Persons covered under this policy, as well as their immediate family members, including spouse or equivalent, children, and parents, are referred to in this policy as "affiliated persons."

Conflicts of interest arise in the following situations:

1. Where an affiliated person has a financial interest or appears to have a financial interest in a decision or transaction.

Name of the organization

Employer identification number

HEALTHED CONNECT INC

27-1115162

2. Where an affiliated person has an affiliation or other conflict of loyalties that may influence a decision, but no personal financial interest.

Self-Dealing

Self-dealing arises in any transaction or decision from which an affiliated person may profit or receive a monetary or financial benefit. Self-dealing includes, but is not limited to, business and financial transactions between the organization and an affiliated person that are expressly prohibited by the Internal Revenue Code and by applicable provisions of state law. Self-dealing also includes business and financial transactions between the Organization and an organization in which an affiliated person has a significant ownership interest (generally, 35% or more).

To maintain the integrity of the Organization and to comply with all federal and state legal requirements, the Organization shall avoid any situation or transaction which would result in any significant economic benefit (direct or indirect) to an affiliated person or which would constitute self-dealing under the federal tax laws.

Except for incidental and tenuous benefits, such as name recognition or public acknowledgement, and except for gifts of nominal value, and meals and social invitations that are in keeping with proper business ethics and do not obligate the recipient, an affiliated person should not accept significant gifts, commissions, payments, travel, entertainment, services, loans or promises of future benefits from grant applicants, suppliers, vendors, government officials or anyone else who has or may seek some benefit from the Organization.

Expectations

All persons affiliated with the Organization in any way are expected to conduct their affairs with the highest ethical standards of integrity, honesty, fairness, and objectivity; and no affiliated person may use his or her position to derive, directly or indirectly, any significant personal benefit of any nature. Consistent with this policy, affiliated persons should avoid any situation that involves or may appear to involve a conflict of interest.

In case of any such conflict or the appearance thereof, affiliated persons are expected to disclose the conflict in advance. Once such a disclosure has been made, either the disinterested board members (if the affiliated person is a board member) or the Executive Director (assuming he or she is disinterested) or the President (assuming he or she is disinterested) of the Organization (if the affiliated person is not a board member) shall determine whether there is a potential conflict of interest. If it is determined that there is a potential conflict of interest, the affiliated person involved shall abstain from voting and shall not participate in the discussion of the matter at issue except to state briefly his or her position in the matter and to answer specific questions of other affiliated persons.

Whenever any person abstains from voting or recuses himself or herself because of a conflict of interest or the appearance thereof, the minutes of the meeting or the proceedings of the Organization shall reflect the abstention or recusal.

Guidelines for implementing and complying with this conflict of interest policy include the following:

"Affiliated persons should abstain from promoting or voting on grants to organizations in which they or immediate family members have an interest.

Name of the organization

"Affiliated persons should not lobby one another on behalf of an organization in which they or their immediate family members have an interest.

"On-site representatives should declare a perceived conflict of interest in writing to HealthEd Connect when family members are appointed to paid or decision-making positions. The HealthEd Connect Executive Committee must review and accept conflict proposal prior to hiring or appointing of said individuals.

"When an agenda item is being considered as to which an affiliated person has a conflict of interest, the conflicted person shall disclose the conflict and abstain from decision-making actions as provided in this policy. With disclosure to other participants, the work of the Organization is furthered by the willingness of it board members, officers, staff members, associates, and advisory committee members, however interested, to share information bearing upon the matter under consideration. Such participation is encouraged.

"Affiliated persons may not have an interest in any vendor or supplier of goods or services to the Organization.

"Confidential financial and investment information may not be used for personal gain. The Organization is a significant private investor and receives substantial confidential information in the performance of its investment obligations. No one should use such confidential information for personal purposes or transmit such information to others except in the course of his or her duties on behalf of the Organization.

"Staff members and associates should notify the Executive Director before accepting any outside affiliations, such as speaking engagements, writing articles for publication, board service, consultancies, honorary degrees or rewards, or other activities which might confer real or perceived benefit on a staff member or associate or which might be construed as influencing decision of the Organization or otherwise compromising the Organization.

"The Executive Director of the Organization should notify the President in advance of his or her possible participation in outside activities such as those described above.

"Board members, officers, staff members, associates, and advisory committee members should not accept outside fees, honoraria, or other compensation for Organization-related activities.

Annual Disclosure Statement

Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board-delegated powers shall annually sign a statement that affirms such person:

b.Has read and understands the policy,

c.Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
